Note: the financial agreement between the Ecole hôtelière de Lausanne and the HES-SO, states that the HES-SO will cover part of the tuition fees of eligible students. According to this agreement, tuition fees for the students concerned are limited to CHF 1,000 per academic year, the remainder being paid by the HES-SO. It does not apply to the Preparatory Year, which is not covered by this agreement.

Are eligible :

- Students with Swiss nationality who have parents living abroad, or whose mother and father are deceased and who lived abroad
- Refugees and stateless persons of age assigned to a canton in Switzerland, whose mother and father are deceased or whose parents are living abroad
- Foreigners of age whose civil residence is in Switzerland, whose mother and father are deceased or whose parents are living abroad
- Foreign students of age who have lived permanently for at least two years in Switzerland, where they have had paid employment giving them financial independence, without undertaking a training course at the same time
- Foreign students whose parents' civil residence or whose guardians' headquarters (if relevant) is located in Switzerland.

In exceptional cases, students whose parents live in the Geneva border zone and who have at least one parent working in the Canton of Geneva may benefit from this measure.

The questionnaire determining the granting of A-HES status will be sent to students one month before the start of the academic year. Only the HES-SO has the authority to determine a student's status.

If a student abandons his or her studies or changes A-HES status for any other reason before 15 October or 15 April, depending on the half-year in progress, the HES-SO will stop contributing to tuition fees.

PREPAID FOOD AND BEVERAGE ACCOUNT

At the beginning of each academic year, student cards are charged with a mandatory minimum amount to cover meals and beverages taken in the outlets on campus. The prepaid amount must be used before the end of the academic year and is not refundable. Any remaining amount at the end of the academic year is transferred to EHL's scholarship fund. Students can recharge their card at any time. The recharged amount can be refunded at the end of their studies if not used.

HEALTH INSURANCE

Basic health and accident insurance is mandatory by law in Switzerland. Students whose fiscal residence – or whose parents' fiscal residence – is outside Switzerland are automatically enrolled in EHL's health and accident insurance plan. An exemption may be obtained by providing proof of adequate coverage to the Swiss authorities.

TERMS & CONDITIONS OF PAYMENT

DOWN PAYMENT

After confirmation of admission to EHL, students are required to pay an advance on tuition fees of CHF 6,000 in order to guarantee their place. This amount is non-refundable, except in extreme circumstances. This down payment amount is then deducted from the total amount due.

INVOICING

The total amount of the compulsory fees is invoiced before the beginning of each academic year and payment is due within 30 days of reception. Students are charged the totality of compulsory fees as a lump sum (in accordance with Art. 160 & ff, Code des Obligations) even if they do not take up their place at the start of term or complete the academic year. In case a student suspends or repeats an academic year, the latest official fees apply.

DEPOSIT (REIMBURSED AT THE END OF STUDIES)

A deposit of CHF 5,000 is required from all new students. This deposit covers any exceptional costs which may arise, for example from damage to rooms or materials. The deposit will be reimbursed at the end of the student's studies at EHL. Interest earned on the deposit will accrue and be added to EHL's scholarship fund, as part of the institution's social responsibility policy for the education of students with financial difficulties. Students who abandon their studies during the academic year must inform EHL of their decision one month before the beginning of the next academic session in order to be eligible to request a refund of the deposit.

These prices are defined based on the inflation rate forecasted by the Swiss National Bank (BNS). If there is a strong variation, EHL will make adjustments accordingly. For further information please consult our website: www.ehl.edu.
